

File: employees.txt

```
101,Rahul Sharma,Data Engineering,75000,Hyderabad
102,Priya Reddy,AI Engineering,85000,Bangalore
103,Amit Kumar,Data Engineering,65000,Mumbai
104,Sneha Patel,Data Science,95000,Chennai
105,Farhan Ali,Cloud Engineering,80000,Delhi
106,Neha Singh,AI Engineering,72000,Hyderabad
107,Arjun Verma,Data Engineering,68000,Pune
108,Meera Nair,Data Science,90000,Bangalore
109,Kiran Rao,Cloud Engineering,78000,Hyderabad
110,Ravi Kumar,AI Engineering,82000,Mumbai
```

Exercise 1

Read and display entire file.

Exercise 2

Display file line by line.

Exercise 3

Count total employees.

Expected Output

```
Total Employees = 10
```

Exercise 4

Display only employee names.

Expected Output

```
Rahul Sharma
Priya Reddy
Amit Kumar
...
```

Exercise 5

Display employees from Hyderabad.

Exercise 6

Display employees from Bangalore.

Exercise 7

Display employees whose salary is greater than 80000.

Exercise 8

Find highest salary.

Exercise 9

Find lowest salary.

Exercise 10

Find average salary.

Exercise 11

Calculate total salary payout.

Exercise 12

Count employees in:

```
AI Engineering
```

Exercise 13

Count employees in:

```
Data Engineering
```

Exercise 14

Display employees whose department is AI Engineering.

Exercise 15

Create a file:

```
high_salary_employees.txt
```

containing employees earning more than ₹80,000.

Exercise 16

Create a file:

```
hyderabad_employees.txt
```

containing Hyderabad employees.

Exercise 17

Count unique cities.

Expected Output

```
Hyderabad
Bangalore
Mumbai
Chennai
Delhi
Pune
```

Exercise 18

Count employees by department.

Expected Output

Data Engineering = ?
AI Engineering = ?
Data Science = ?
Cloud Engineering = ?

Exercise 19

Find employee with highest salary.

Expected Output

```
Sneha Patel
95000
```

Exercise 20

Generate a report file:

```
employee_report.txt
```

containing:

```
Total Employees
Highest Salary
Lowest Salary
Average Salary
Total Salary
```
